

Manufacturing - President / CEO

Experience: Successful Track Record with Early Start Up Company with minimum of 6 years in manufacturing industry or time pursued towards MBA

Preferred: Background in manufacturing with some knowledge of automotive enthusiast market

Job Type: Full Time

We are conducting a national search for our client, a North Dakota manufacturing company, for the position of President/CEO.

With the ability to build a strong management team, and capitalize on the talent of the existing team. Individual will design and oversee this manufacturer's day to day operations. The new CEO will be a growth-focused leader with success at strategic planning and execution, and building realistic goals and expectations for growth and general process improvements.

Additional attributes include:

- Successful, dynamic leader with proven manufacturing experience, MBA or 5 years experience in industry.
- Significant management accomplishments in a small to mid-sized after-market automotive enhancements. Experience with funding small to mid-sized companies. Background in finance or past experience as a marketing director with E-Business
- A business mind-set that embraces the relationship that exists between the customer and their automotive passions
- Tactical establishment of Key Performance Indicators – including budget to actual, sales pipeline and production schedule / on-time performance
- Knowledge of international business with emphasis on automotive equipment product distribution
- Understand automotive enthusiast target market
- Experienced with negotiations for distribution channels and investors.

Compensation and benefits:

Competitive market-based salary dependent on qualifications. Qualifications may include option for percent of company ownership

Email Resumes that include three recent references and an example of business paper written within the last 3 years to info@ideacenternd.org Attention: Julie

